Disclaimer

This is the official website of the California Conference of Arson Investigators.

The information published on this website is intended solely for educational purposes and is to be used as an advisory aid to members working to suppress the crime of arson and related offenses. It is also provided to assist in raising the level of expertise in fire investigation.

Articles herein express the views and opinions of the authors which are not necessarily those of the California Conference of Arson Investigators or its representatives. The Technical Publication Review Committee reserves the right to accept or reject any article, technical information or professional opinion submitted for publication on this site.

The acceptance of articles, technical information or opinions on this website does not constitute, and shall not be interpreted as an endorsement of the author(s), opinion(s), information or any product(s) included within this information. It is our intent to present articles and information from our peers to encourage profession discussion and debate among the CCAI members for the purpose of advancing knowledge in the field of fire science and investigation. Professional care should be used to confirm the accuracy of all content, opinions or supplied data prior to use for reference, consulting, and legal support.

All material submitted to CCAI and or posted or published by CCAI that is written, photographed, sketched, drawn, recorded or otherwise created by author(s) is copyrighted. As such, those materials are, and shall remain, the exclusive and sole property of the original author(s). All copyrights are reserved.

Using information provided by CCAI implies that the User/Reader hereby agrees that to the fullest extent allowed by law, CCAI shall have no liability to User/Reader for any and all claims, actions, damages, or losses arising out of, or in any way related to User/Reader’s use of information provided by CCAI. User/Reader further agrees that in no event shall CCAI be liable for any claims or damages of any nature (including costs relating thereto) from such publication. Use of such information provided by CCAI constitutes User/Reader’s agreement with all these terms and conditions stated above.
